

To properly celebrate the fourth full ennead from the fortunate founding of the Forodrim Tolkien Society its Grand Council has decided to invite all the kindred and allies of the North-people to an unequalled feast, the 36-year jubilee of the Forodrim, that will take place on 20–23 Náríe in the year 37 (5–8 June, a.D. 2008).

Therefore We princely members of the Grand Council of the Forodrim hereby invite to the aforesaid unequalled feast, where We hope to see many of its honourable members participate, in merry company with other guests from near and far, and with Our own subjects. If Elbakin on this solemn occasion sends an accredited embassy, We will also gladly receive it.

Our best singers are rehearsing, Our best cooks are planning the banquets, Our best brewers are making the beer, and many of Our most talented subjects are preparing all that the jubilee feast will offer: talks, entertainments, games, exhibitions, market &cetera. We intend to make the Forodrim's jubilee fulfill the highest expectations.

We wish Elbakin most warmly welcome.

May a star shine upon the hour of our meeting!
